

1.4 Judges Practicing in Other Courts. Attorneys who practice law and who are appointed or elected to serve as juvenile court judges shall not practice law in any juvenile court in the State of Georgia. This rule, however, shall not apply to custody cases in which the action was originally filed in superior court and is subsequently transferred by the judge thereof to the juvenile court pursuant to O.C.G.A. §15-11-28(c).