

11.4 Social History. The social history of the child shall not be presented to the judge until after said child is adjudicated to have committed the delinquent or unruly act.