

3.3 Removal of Papers From Clerk's Office. Attorneys, court reporters and other persons allowed to have access to official court records shall remove such records from the clerk's office only upon written order of the judge. Probation officers and intake staff may have access to official court records only under conditions prescribed by the judge under a general order.