

4.7 Juvenile Rights Form. After a case has been referred to the court prior to beginning the initial conference between a child and a non-judicial officer of the court at which the allegations of a delinquency or unruly complaint are discussed, an officer of the court shall fully explain the child's rights and fill out the Pre-trial Juvenile Rights Form JUV-20 with the child and parent. The judge or associate judge may use this form in lieu of another form or methodology in advising the child of his or her rights before proceeding with any hearing. The signed form shall be filed with the clerk of the court and made a part of the permanent file.
