

7.6 Responsive Pleadings. Responsive pleadings in all proceedings before the juvenile court are permissible and encouraged. However, they are not mandatory. If filed, such responsive pleadings must be in writing and served upon all parties. Responsive pleadings may be filed any time prior to the adjudicatory hearing.