

9.1 Application. If a child is placed in detention pending a hearing, the child's parents or legal guardian may make application for bond by filing a written request with the clerk of the court, who shall schedule a hearing in the event one is needed.